

CHURCH IN POLITICS, GLASMANN DECLARES

Bishop Taylor Is Said to Have Urged Claims of the Brethren.

WANTS THEM ELECTED

Gentiles at Ogden Said to Be Alarmed at Action of Churchmen.

The following article, under the heading: "Mormon Church Is in Politics—Bishop Taylor Reads Names of the 'Brothers' at Church Meeting That 'We Want Elected'—Gentiles Getting Uneasy and Threaten Revolt—Mass Convention Proposed," appeared in Thursday evening's Ogden Standard:

The Gentiles in this community are greatly alarmed over what is said to be church interference in politics. It is charged, and proven beyond a doubt, that many of the Mormon church leaders took such an important part in the late primaries that many of the non-Mormons are talking of war measures. Three self-appointed committees will visit Senator Thomas Kearns the latter part of this week to make arrangements for the organization of the American party in Ogden. At first this paper was inclined to laugh at the denunciation of the alleged church influence but when many of our leading citizens, and some of them Mormons, charged this paper with suppressing the action of the church in politics, this paper finally detailed a reporter to look the matter up.

At the Sunday afternoon meeting at the Ogden tabernacle, Apostle D. O. McKay preached a good citizenship sermon, calling on the people to vote for good men for mayor and commissioners. Heber Sowercroft was seated on the stand by the side and a little to the rear of the speaker. There could have been no doubt that Apostle McKay meant that Mr. Sowercroft was the good man for the office of mayor. At least men who attended the tabernacle say they felt that the apostle was putting in a good word for Brother Heber Sowercroft.

In the fourth congregational ward of Third municipal ward, Bishop Taylor at the church services had a ballot and from it picked the church candidates and asked his flock to support them.

Bishop Taylor mentioned the names of Brother Heber Sowercroft, Brother Samuel Brown, Brother Van Dyke, Brother Reeder, and when he came to the name of Joseph C. Nye, the bishop said that Mr. Nye was not a member of the Mormon church but that he was in sympathy with the Mormon church, and stood "for what we do."

Bishop Taylor did not mince words. He said: "We want these good men elected."

This paper has always looked upon J. C. Nye as a good Methodist brother, but it seems the Saints have him down in light in sympathy with them.

This good Mormon has told the writer that the bishop was so far in instructing the Saints how to vote that he has been shivering ever since he picked up the Evening Standard, fearing an exposure of the un-American methods.

One of the candidates whom the church leaders are not supporting was dumfounded to see his Mormon friends whom the said candidate had favored many times in the past actually working against his former friend and benefactor. Another candidate had befriended a certain Mormon bishop and was forced to sue him when some ladies told him the bishop had commanded them as his bishop to vote against the said candidate who had done this same bishop many a good turn. It is only fair to say the said candidate denied this last story, but the ladies are good Mormons and say the story is true and they will give the name of the bishop whenever this paper may ask for it.

Now then, what does this church activity mean? For twenty years the publisher of this paper has tried to keep the religious fight down in Ogden, and this paper prides itself on having been fairly successful in maintaining peace and harmony in Ogden. But this latest Mormon church activity is a little more than good American citizens will willingly submit to.

Have the church leaders any excuse to make for their over-zealous support of those candidates named by the self-appointed committee of thirty behind the closed doors of the church headquarters in the Eccles building?

This reminds us that there seems to have been a switch in candidates. The secret meeting held in the church headquarters nominated A. G. Fell, but for some reason he has been dropped by the church crowd and Sowercroft has been substituted as the head of the secret meeting nominees, while A. G. Fell mysteriously finds himself supported by what some call the "net" interests. Just why this switch was made and how and when it was accomplished is still a mystery. There is some talk of holding a convention of non-Mormons, but this paper advises those who feel wounded to await further developments. The church leaders may really have some excuse for their activity in politics at this time and this paper calls on the church leaders and offers free space to show why the leaders of the Mormon church should at this time find it necessary to instruct their members how to vote.

AMUSEMENTS

COLONIAL THEATER—Florence Roberts, Thurlow Bergen and Theodore Roberts. In "Jim the Penman". Curtain, 8:15. Matinee today.

ORPHEUM THEATER—Advanced vaudeville. All week. Matinee daily at 2:15, evening performances 8:15.

GARRICK THEATER—"The Easterner," by the Garrick Stock company. Curtain, 8:15. Matinee today.

MAJESTIC THEATER—Abbreviated musical comedy by the Majestic company.

MISSION THEATER—Motion pictures and vaudeville. Afternoon and evening.

LIBERTY THEATER—Motion pictures, songs and orchestra. Afternoon and evening.

CASINO THEATER—Motion pictures and vaudeville. Afternoon and evening.

Owing to the sudden illness of Mr. Bellew, his local engagement was discontinued at the Salt Lake theater.

"Jim the Penman" will be presented for the last two performances in Salt Lake at the Colonial this afternoon and evening. Florence Roberts, Thurlow Bergen and Theodore Roberts have made this play one of the very best dramatic offerings of the past few seasons and it is hoped that these stars will again appear in Salt Lake in a play equally as strong as "Jim the Penman."

La Arquera and Victor, whose wonderful dancing is creating almost a sensation at the Orpheum this week, danced before their majesties, the king and queen of Spain, on the occasion of their royal wedding. Before entering vaudeville, Victor gained fame in Spain as a bull fighter and La Arquera's father was the accredited champion bull fighter of Spain.

Melodramatic as is "The Easterner," there are flashes of clever fun threading their way through its action in such a manner as to make the play unusually interesting. The play has been the Garrick's bill all week, and with a matinee this afternoon and a performance tonight it will give way to "Texas," which will open for one week tomorrow evening.

Wednesday night, November 1, at 7:30 o'clock, the new Empress theater on Upper Main street will be formally ushered into the local theatrical field. All the minor details incidental to the opening have been carefully taken care of. A glance at the opening bill seems to assure Salt Lake of an excellent program of entertainment. The policy of the Sullivan & Conditine circuit never to drop below a standard once established.

Margaret Mayo's great success, "Baby Mine," which has a record of having played one solid year at Daly's theater, New York, comes to the Colonial for one week beginning Sunday night. The perplexities of Zoie, the flibbing wife; Aggie, her charming friend; and Jimmy, who is the good natured victim of both women, are said to be extremely amusing. Few comedies are as continuously funny as "Baby Mine," which has a laugh in every line.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe, missionary bishop of Alaska, today was elected bishop of the Episcopal missionary district of South Dakota. Other missionary bishops chosen by the Episcopal bishops were Rev. D. Trumbull Huntington, bishop of Wu Hu, China, and Rev. Henry St. George Tucker, president of St. Paul's college, Japan, bishop of Kioto, Japan.

Want to Help Make Law. NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Until the enfranchisement of women, we call upon all women to oppose the idea of a uniform divorce law, reads a section of the platform adopted by the women's suffrage convention held at the third annual convention here. The clause adds that such legislation at this time is opposed because it would be made by men only and would therefore necessarily discriminate against women.

A Medicine that gives Confidence. Is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. Mrs. T. J. Adams, 522 No. Kansas Ave., Columbus, Kas., writes: "For a number of years my children have been subject to coughs and colds. I used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and found that it cured their coughs and colds, so I kept it in the house all the time." Refuse substitutes. Schramm-Johnson Drugs, five stores.

KYRLE BELLEW ILL; NOT ABLE TO PLAY

Severe Attack of La Grippe Confines Popular Actor to His Bed.

Owing to a severe attack of la grippe, Kyrle Bellew, the noted English actor, who made his first appearance in "The Mollie" at the Salt Lake theater Thursday night, was compelled to cancel the balance of the local engagement. Several hundred disappointed playgoers were turned away from the Salt Lake theater last night, as the management decided that it was better to call the show off than present the play with an understudy in Mr. Bellew's place.

Shortly after arising yesterday morning in his apartments at the Hotel Utah Mr. Bellew felt anew attacks of chill and fever which he first experienced while playing in Denver several days ago, and which he attributed to the altitude. The spell had apparently passed over and Mr. Bellew was counting on having an enjoyable time during his stay in Salt Lake renewing many old acquaintances and in sight-seeing. As his fever increased, instead of diminishing, he returned to his bed and had Dr. Snow called. It was on the doctor's advice that Mr. Bellew determined to cancel the balance of his engagement and remain quietly in his apartments for the next few days. He expects to have sufficiently recovered by Monday to resume his tour westward.

THREE RESIGN FROM MEXICAN CABINET

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 27.—Three ministers tendered their resignations at an animated meeting of the cabinet last night. It was learned today. They were Acting Minister of War General Gonzales Salas, Minister of the Interior Alberto Garcia Girones and Minister of Public Instruction Francisco Vasquez Gomez. Their action was a direct outcome of the attack made on the ministers of war and the interior at Wednesday night's session of congress when an explanation of the government's failure to suppress some of the Zapatistas was demanded. It is believed that President De la Barra will accept the resignations.

ROBBERS BLOW UP OKLAHOMA BANK SAFE

SHAWNEE, Okla., Oct. 27.—Robbers attacked the town of McComb, several miles from here, today, cut telephone and telegraph wires, then blew open the safe in the town bank. They got a large amount of money and escaped before a sheriff's posse could head them off. Men are on the robbers' trail.
